

The Fresh Start Survival Course

'How to survive your first years'

A third of businesses fail within the first two years. This course aims to improve a business's chances of survival by introducing a range of practical tools and techniques. Aimed at businesses started within the last two years, this half day course focuses particularly on measures designed to help businesses succeed in a tough economic climate. Topics include managing costs, cashflow, raising your game and generating income.

Course Dates
To be confirmed

- All courses are free and held at the Business Centre Swansea.
- This is a 1/2 day course and runs from 9.15 am-1.00 pm.
- To book your place on any of the above courses please telephone 01792 545050 as booking is essential.